

General Information:

- We will begin accepting these forms during housing renewal. Spaces are on a first come, first serve basis. Space is NOT guarantee.
- Please be aware that room preferences and roommate preferences cannot be guaranteed for summer housing.
- The Office of University Housing reserves the right to place residents in any available space.
- Students who desire to live in the residence halls during the summer must be registered for at least one LTU class during the summer session.
- Summer room assignments will be determined by the Office of University Housing by mid April. All apartments will be used to capacity. There will not be any singles offered to students unless there is a medical need. Summer housing for students will be available on the following floors only:

University Housing-North Floor 1 – Smoke Free
University Housing- South Floor 9 – Smoke Free

For students who are returning to the residence halls in the fall, you will be expected to move from your current room (if applicable) to your summer assignment in late May. You will need to move into your fall semester assignment in early August. Failure to move within the established timeline will result in a violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

For students who are NOT returning to the residence halls in the fall, you will be expected to move from your current room (if applicable) to your summer assignment in late May. You will need to move out of your summer assignment by 10AM on Saturday, July 25, 2009. Failure to move within the established timeline will result in a violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

For students who choose “Summer Only”: you will be expected to move from your current room (if applicable) to your summer assignment in late May. You will need to move out of your summer assignment by 10AM on Saturday, July 25, 2009. Failure to move within the established timeline will result in a violation of the Student Code of Conduct. If you are staying for “Summer Housing Only” you must remove all your belongings from your room. There is no storage available.

FYI...

If you decide to change your summer contract to “Summer Housing Only” from “Continuous stay”, you must do so by Monday, June 1, 2009 in writing. Otherwise there will be no price adjustments made.
