

General Information:

- Summer housing applications must be submitted separately from the fall-spring application.
- If you are attending housing renewal you should complete your summer application and bring both applications to housing renewal. If you are not attending housing renewal but would like summer housing, or are applying for summer housing after housing renewal, you should email your application to the Office of University Housing.
- Spaces are on a first come, first serve basis. Space is NOT guaranteed.
- Please be aware that room preferences and roommate preferences cannot be guaranteed for summer housing.
- The Office of University Housing reserves the right to place residents in any available space.
- Students who desire to live in the residence halls during the summer must be registered for at least one LTU class during the summer session.
- Summer room assignments will be determined by the Office of University Housing by mid April. All apartments will be used to capacity. There will not be any singles offered to students unless there is a medical need. One bedroom apartments are limited and will be needed for those who need medical accommodations. Summer housing for students will be in North Housing only. Specific floors are yet to be determined.

For students who are returning to the residence halls in the fall, you will be expected to move from your current room (if applicable) to your summer assignment in late May. You will need to move into your fall semester assignment in early August. Failure to move within the established timeline will result in a violation of the Student Code of Conduct and an improper checkout fee.

For students who are NOT returning to the residence halls in the fall, you will be expected to move from your current room (if applicable) to your summer assignment in late May. You will need to move out of your summer assignment by 10AM on Saturday, July 30, 2011. Failure to move within the established timeline will result in a violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

For students who choose “Summer Only”: you will be expected to move from your current room (if applicable) to your summer assignment in late May. You will need to move out of your summer assignment by 10AM on Saturday, July 30, 2011. Failure to move within the established timeline will result in a violation of the Student Code of Conduct. If you are staying for “Summer Housing Only” you must remove all your belongings from your room. There is no storage available.

FYI...

If you decide to change your summer contract to “Summer Housing Only” from “Continuous stay”, you must do so by Monday, June 6, 2011 in writing. Otherwise there will be no price adjustments made.
