Qualifications:

To qualify for a Lawrence Tech Recovery Grant, the student must be in good academic standing (see Failure to Make Academic Progress on page 42 of the Undergraduate Catalog or page 47 of the Graduate Catalog) and must maintain at least 12 credit hours per semester at the undergraduate level or 6 credit hours per semester at the graduate level. The student must be a displaced worker or dependent child of a displaced worker, and must submit either: a buyout letter, a separation agreement, or a copy of a filed unemployment application. Please be sure to write your name and/or student ID on all supporting documentation. The student is responsible for paying the balance of their account by the scheduled due dates.

The student will receive official notification of acceptance and conditions by U.S. postal mail.

There are 400 Recovery Grants available at this time: 200 for undergraduate students and 200 for graduate students.

I attest that this information is true and accurate and I understand the qualifications outlined above.
