

Guillermo Roque

Guillermo was born in the city of Puebla in central Mexico.

He started his career with Volkswagen de Mexico in its Finance area in 1997. In 1999 the company gave him the opportunity to move to the US and work at its Risk Management unit for the North American Region in Auburn Hills, MI.

In 2005 he left Volkswagen and joined Jefferson Wells International in Southfield, MI. With the firm he worked as a consultant to utility and automotive global clients. Jefferson Wells sponsored him during his Green Card application process and he was granted permanent residency to the US in 2007.

Just recently he joined BASF Corp. in Wyandotte, MI. He is performing as a Sr. Financial Analyst for the Global Foams Business.

Guillermo holds a bachelor's degree in Accounting, an associate designation in Risk Management and an MBA in Finance.
