

Shotaro (Sho) Nakahama
Executive Director
Japan Business Society of Detroit

Shotaro Nakahama started his working career with Mitsui & Co., Ltd in 1978, after graduating from Keio University, Tokyo Japan. He nourished his international business skill during his career with Mitsui & Co., mainly in the steel sector. He engaged in global business with diverse customer base in all of the 5 continents, and his strong ability to establish relationship and network in multi-cultural environment is the foundation of his career with the Japan Business Society of Detroit.

Professional Career

- 1) May 2001 ~ Current : Japan Business Society of Detroit
- 2) March 1978 ~ May 2001 : Mitsui & Co. , Ltd.

Other Activities (current)

- 1) Japan America Society of Greater Detroit and Windsor, Board Member
- 2) Japan Center for Michigan Universities, Executive Committee Member
- 3) Detroit Regional Economic Partnership, Asian Committee Member
- 4) Wayne State University, Board of Visitors Member
- 5) Japanese School of Detroit, Board Member