

Low Impact Development

This section of the toolkit contains information about low impact development. The information includes brochures, articles and fact sheets that can be reproduced or ordered. Here is a list of the materials that are available in print in this section of the toolkit:

Title	How to Reproduce/Order	CD	Print Suggestions
Low-Impact Development Brochure	Download from: http://www.lowimpactdevelopment.org/brochures.htm	Yes	8.5x11, 24 lb. bright white paper, full color
Conservation Subdivisions	Download from: http://nemo.uconn.edu/publications/index.htm	Yes	16x11 fold in half to 8.5x11, 24 lb. specialty paper
Builder's Guide to Low Impact Development	Download from: http://www.lowimpactdevelopment.org/brochures.htm	Yes	8.5x11 trifold brochure, full color, glossy paper
Municipal Guide to Low Impact Development	Download from: http://www.lowimpactdevelopment.org/brochures.htm	Yes	8.5x11 trifold brochure, full color, glossy paper
Let It Soak! LID Pop-Up Sponge	http://www.epa.gov/ncepihom/ordering.htm EPA # 841E03001	Yes	Print on Pop-Up Sponge
Low-Impact Development Article	Download from: http://www.lowimpactdevelopment.org/publications.htm	Yes	8.5x11 color or B&W, 24 lb. bright white paper

Website Resources

<http://www.energy.ufl.edu> - Florida Energy Extension Service promotes efficient use of energy and natural resources for professionals such as contractors, hotels, motels, etc.

<http://www.epa.gov/ncepihom/ordering.htm> - Order Low Impact Development (LID): A Literature Review from the EPA. EPA # 841-B-00-005

<http://www.lid-stormwater.net/intro/background.htm> - An introduction to Low Impact Development. Click on the “Start Designing” icon to look at different LID designs.

<http://www.lowimpactdevelopment.org> - Low Impact Development Center’s website.

<http://www.smartgrowth.org> - Smart Growth Online is a searchable database of reports, websites, tools and case studies.

<http://www.toolbase.org>- National Association of Homebuilders Research Center Toolbase Services website.

http://www.wa.gov/puget_sound/Publications/Pub_Master.htm - Puget Sound Online has a list of publications that can be ordered or downloaded on stormwater management, LID, and stormwater education programs.