

Revised Graduate Program Admissions Policy 6/17/2008

1. All graduate applications admitted below a 3.0 or without the required undergraduate degree(s) need to be signed off by College Dean (or Associate Dean) or Dean of Graduate Programs in addition to the Program Director. Admissions will not issue admit letters without two signatures for applicants that do not meet the minimum published graduate admission requirements for their programs.

And

2. All graduate student applications that were denied by one college or program and are applying to a different Lawrence Tech graduate program or college will have to also be signed by the College Dean of the admitting college or the Dean of Graduate Programs.
