Have you ever thought about starting and growing your own business? Explore Lawrence Technological University’s Osborn Entrepreneur and Microenterprise Project, a 10-week training and support program designed to provide you with the tools you need to realize your dreams.

Explore topics such as:
- Strategic planning
- Customer development
- Marketing and promotion
- Competitive analysis
- Organizational structure
- Risk management
- Employee management
- Accounting
- Financial analysis
- Decision making

Call 248.204.3275 to learn more.

The Osborn Entrepreneur and Microenterprise Project is a program of Lawrence Tech’s College of Management funded by the Skillman Foundation Good Neighborhoods Program.