Section Two:
Assessment of Narrative Report

NOTE 1: If a deficiency is included in the scope of an FE, the program may not be released from reporting on it in Part II of the Annual Report, except by the FE Team.

NOTE 2: Although an area may be marked “satisfied, no further reporting required,” the next visiting team will still make its own assessment of the program’s response to the deficiency in the next Visiting Team Report.

DEFICIENCIES
Criterion 13.15. Accessibility
Please continue to report on progress meeting this deficiency. In the 2010 Annual Report, consider including sample student work showing accessible parking.

Criterion 13.34. Ethics and Professional Judgment
The program’s efforts to address this deficiency are duly noted. The program should continue to report on its progress and should consider including course descriptions and syllabi for the new and enhanced courses that cover ethics.

CAUSES OF CONCERN
Growth of Student Body Beyond Facility Capacity
The program is clearly working to address this concern. Please continue to report on the results of the measures taken thus far as well as on the continuing effect of the economy on enrollment.

History Sequence
Please continue to report on the program’s efforts to address this concern.

Human Resources
Please continue to report on progress addressing this concern, particularly related to the anticipated new hires.

Advising
Please continue to report on the results of new procedures implemented to address this concern.
Writing Skills
Please continue to report on recent measures put in place to address this concern.

CHANGES TO THE ACCREDITED PROGRAM
In 2007-8, the College of Architecture and Design changed the nomenclature of its accredited 4 + 3 degree to M.Arch 3+.
