Windows XP LTU Network connection instructions

1. Go to Start > Connect To
2. Right-click Wireless Network Connection, then select Properties. A new window opens. Select Internet Protocol (TCP/IP), then click the Properties button

3. A new window will open.
   a. Select Obtain an IP address automatically
   b. Select Obtain DNS server address automatically
   c. Click OK

5. Select the Wireless Networks tab. A new window will open. Click the Add button. Another new window will open
   a. Type LTU Network into the Network name (SSID): field.
   b. Select WPA2 from the Network Authentication: drop-down menu.
      i. Note: If you do not see WPA2 as a choice, you will need to install the Wi-Fi Protected Access 2 (WPA2)/Wireless Provisioning Services Information Element (WPS IE) Update from Microsoft.
      ii. Please see http://support.microsoft.com/?id=893357 for information on installing the update.
   c. Select AES from the Data encryption: drop-down menu.

   a. Select Protected EAP (PEAP) from the EAP type: drop-down menu.
   b. Un-Check the Authenticate as computer when computer information is available checkbox if it is checked.
   c. Un-Check the Authenticate as guest when user or computer information is unavailable checkbox if it is checked.

7. Click the Properties button. A new window will open.
   a. Check the Validate server certificate checkbox.
   b. Select Secured password (EAP-MSCHAP v2) from the Select Authentication Method: drop-down menu.

8. Click the Configure button. A new window will open.
   a. Un-check the Automatically use my Windows logon name and password (and domain if any), checkbox if it is checked.
   b. Click OK.

2. Click OK to close the Wireless Network Properties window.
3. Click OK to close the LTU Network Properties window.
4. Click OK to save your changes.
5. Right-click Wireless Network Connection, located in the lower right Task bar area near the clock. Select View Available Wireless Networks. A new window opens:
6. To connect to the LTU Network, highlight LTU Network, then click the Connect button.
   a. Note: If this is the first time that you connect, a notice similar to the following will appear in your system tray:

7. Click on the icon in the system tray. A new window opens:
8. Type your Campus username into the User name: field.
   a. Type your password into the Password: field.
   b. Leave the Logon domain: field blank.
9. Click OK.

10. If you are successful, a window similar to the following will appear when you view your wireless network connections:

If you cannot connect to the LTU Network, please visit or contact the Help Desk at 248.204.2330 for further assistance.